

Fred,

The site below is my EPK (electronic press kit). There is a Bio, Photos, Gigs, Song Sample. I've sent you a pdf of a bio I wrote a few months ago and my buddy Hank used that to create the epk bio. Please feel free to put this info out in a variety of place. Yes on your page, thanks. And yes include my email. The contact on epk also works.

The LADY WASHINGTON was used in the first pirates as the INTERCEPT the bboat Johnny D steals and sails away on. Most of the film LW is sitting at anchor out in the bay in the background. If you have the DVD w/xtras there is a ships diary section with talk of the voyage from LA to St Vincennes Island for filming.

In 1994 the ship was used in STAR TREK: GENERATIONS in a holodeck scene when Worf is promoted to Commander. I'm all over the letterbox version. THE LW site is www.historicalseaport.org ( was <http://ladywashington.org> )

and my bud Hank is at hankcramer.com
